

Year 1: Funky Freeze

By the end of this unit what should pupils know?

- Know that Ernest Shackleton was a famous Antarctic explorer.
- Know some key facts about Ernest Shackleton ie. Where he was born, when he was born, what his job was,
- To know a simple timeline of events from Shackleton's voyage on the endurance.
- To know sources where we can find out about Shackleton.
- Know where the equator, North Pole and South Pole are on a globe.
- Know the features of hot and cold places.
- Know the season winter and it's main weather conditions
- Know that hot countries are positioned near the equator and cold countries are positioned near the poles on a globe.